

The careful man starts a bank account for his children and teaches them how to save for the future

SAVING IS A HABIT. EXTRAVAGANCE IS A HABIT. EVERY HABIT GROWS ON YOU.

IF THE "SAVING HABIT" IS CULTIVATED IN A CHILD YOU WILL SOME DAY SEE THE FRUIT OF THAT HABIT IN A FORTUNE.

EXTRAVAGANCE WILL POSITIVELY LEAD TO RUIN. EXTRAVAGANCE WILL MELT THE MOST SOLID FORTUNE. YOU HAVE SEEN IT.

RE UNION

An event of unusual interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore at Millpoint, Sunday, July 2nd, when the members of the family of Rev. James E. Moore (de'd.) met to have a re-union—the first in a quarter of a century. Everybody seemed unusually happy but no one more so than "Mother" Moore, who is now in her seventy-ninth year, and who was delighted to have so many with her on this occasion. Of a large family of eighteen children only eight are living—two sisters and two brothers by the first union, and one sister and three brothers by the last.

Surrounding the table at the dinner hour, loaded with many good things to eat, were Mrs. Luemina Moore, Mr and Mrs. O. W. Ruckman, Seebert; Mr. and Mrs. John S. Moore, Marlinton; Rev. R. M. Wheeler and wife, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Moore, Hillsboro, and their daughter, Mrs. Forrest Hill, Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Marion White and their daughter Miss Ruth and the little grandson, Harry Dancan, Oonoto; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore, Lynchburg, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Moore, their daughter Miss Grace, and their two sons Grady and Clarence, Farmington, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore and their two sons, Sherman and Wilber Enoch, composing the family circle, and Frank and Lilly Isbell, of Hillsboro, guests of the occasion, and later Mrs. W. H. Audridge and her two sons, Reuben and Sandy joined the crowd to the delight of all present.

The evening was spent in singing, talking over the past with its many and varied scenes, its joys and its sorrows, and of what the future may have in store for us, our hopes and our fears; and when the sun which lights the planet on which we live was sinking beneath the western horizon, and the hour for separation had come and return to our several homes our hearts were glad for this meeting here, and our hope was strengthened as we thought of another happy reunion yet to come.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

At the meeting of Edray Board of Education on Monday, the contract for the District High School building was let to E. D. King for the sum of $16,570. That Mr. King is the contractor is assurance of a first class building. Work on the foundation is well under way, and the building will be pushed to completion.

A number of school trustees were appointed. Miss Laura Moore will probably be in charge of the primary room of the Marlinton school again.

The Board will look over sites for proposed school houses on Laurel Creek, at Mace and on Limestone Run, near Warwick.

The Board has complied with all the requirements to put the Marlinton High school in the first class. Miss Merrell is the principal; and the teachers are Miss Guy, of Columbus, Ohio, and J. A. York, a recent graduate of Randolph Macon. Mr. York is a son of Rev. J. M. York, who was pastor of the Hillsboro Methodist Church at one time. The rate of tuition for high school scholars from other districts, to be paid by the districts, is fixed at $15 for the term.

Men who think they can't smoke a pipe or roll a cigarette can smoke and will smoke if they use Prince Albert. And smokers who have not yet given P. THE FOURTH

The Fourth of July was a very satisfactory day in Marlinton. There was a large crowd of good, well dressed people who seemed to enjoy the entertainment provided. The celebration was not thought of until the week before the Fourth, when a few public spirited men got busy and made what arrangements they could in the limited time. A feature was the automobile parade, in which seventy-five machines took part. Anderson's Band made music all day long; the horse racing was fast and exciting; the foot races good, as were the ball games. The weather was perfect and better behavior need not be desired.
